

RESUME

Dr. Anil Singh did his MLISc in 1994 and PhD in Library and Information Science in 2004 on the topic “Design and Development of Himalayan Studies Information System: A Model” from Jiwaji University, Gwalior. Presently, he is working as Assistant Director (Library Services) in Competition Commission of India (CCI), New Delhi. Prior to joining CCI, he has also worked in Indian Council of Social Science Research (ICSSR), New Delhi, National Council of Educational Research and Training (NCERT), New Delhi and in G.B. Pant Institute of Himalayan Environment & Development, Almora in various capacity.

Till now he has more than 70 publications to his credit, which includes Papers in various Indian and Foreign LIS Journals, Book reviews etc. He has also written papers in non-LIS journals and newspapers and also presented several papers in various conferences and seminars.

He is the recipient of the SAARC Sponsored one month Training Programme on ICT Application in Libraries by SAARC Documentation Centre, New Delhi; 'ILA Promoter Award 2009' by Indian Library Association, New Delhi and National Level 'RRRLF Best Paper Award 2001' for his article “Role of Public Libraries in Promoting Reading Habits and Literacy” by Raja Rammohun Roy Library Foundation, Kolkata, a prominent organization set up by Ministry of Tourism & Culture, Government of India for the development of public library system in India.

Dr. Anil Singh is also in the panel of reviewers and editorial boards of many national as well as International Journals. He is closely associated with the academic activities of several universities/institutions in India in the field of Library and Information Science. He also served as Member of various organizing committee constituted for workshops / conferences in the field of Library Automation and Digital Library in various Institutions. He is also Member of many professional bodies like ILA, IASLIC, RRC, RSSWLD etc.