

Bhawna Gulati
Joint Director (Law), Competition Commission of India

Ms. Gulati is a lawyer having master's degrees in both law and economics. She holds a Dual LL.M degree, first from NYU School of Law in US and Asian Business Trade Laws and second from NUS Faculty of Law, Singapore in Corporate and Financial Laws. She also holds a master's degree in economics from Kings College London. Post LL.M, she joined Jindal Global Law School, India, in August 2010. Her interest in Competition Law inspired her to join Competition Commission of India in August, 2012, where she is currently posted as Joint Director (Law) in the Anti-Trust Division. Ms. Gulati has vast international exposure, including her master's degrees from reputed schools in Asia, UK and US, besides having hands on experience in international competition cases during secondment to DG Competition, Europe. She has authored many research papers, some of which are published in renowned journals.