

BRIEF Profile

Ms. Jyoti Jindgar Bhanot, Adviser (Economics), Competition Commission of India, holds a Bachelors Degree in Economics from Hindu College and a Masters Degree in Business Economics from Department of Business Economic, Delhi University.

She possesses vast Regulatory and Enforcement experience of more than 25 years. She is presently looking after Economics and Research & Trend Analysis Divisions at CCI.

Before her current role at CCI, she worked as Additional Director General for about 5 years in the office of Director General, CCI. As in charge of one of the Investigation Unit, she conducted investigation into various alleged anti competitive activities such as cartels, bid rigging, vertical restraints and abuse of dominance including those in new technology markets. Earlier she worked for around 15 years in SEBI, the Regulator for the Securities Markets in India, in various capacities in different areas.

She has been part of various domestic and international Committees and think tanks.

