

Sayanti Chakrabarti

Sayanti Chakrabarti is Director in the Economics Division of the Competition Commission of India (CCI). During her 11-year stint in the CCI, she has worked on conduct and combination cases across sectors of the economy, with particular specialisation in antitrust matters in digital markets. She contributes to the research outputs of the Commission including market studies, besides engaging in advocacy initiatives with stakeholders and competition assessment of policies/laws/model concession agreements etc. Before joining the CCI, she worked with the Economic Affairs & Research Division and the Eastern Regional Council of the Federation of Indian Chambers of Commerce and Industry. She holds a Master's degree in Economics from Calcutta University.